

Shoreham Academy Law Department: 2 year curriculum map

	Autumn	Spring	Summer
Year 12	Introduction to Law, and Introduction to Criminal Law Substantive Law: Elements of criminal law – actus reus / mens rea Non-fatal Offences Against the Person Non-substantive Law: Legal personnel Criminal court system Lay people in the Criminal Justice system Judiciary Has links to: Interpretation of terms (English), analysing data tables (Maths)	Introduction to tort law Substantive Law: Tort – negligence and damages Occupier’s Liability Contributory negligence Defences Non-substantive Law: EU Law Delegated legislation Judicial precedent Statutory interpretation Civil courts and tracks Law and Morality Has links to: necessity for system of law in society (Lord of the Flies, Y8 English), how religion / natural lawyers have driven the development of law (Religious Studies)	Tort and Criminal law continued and non-substantive law Substantive Law Tort: Nuisance Rylands v Fletcher Vicarious liability Substantive Law Criminal: Property offences – theft and robbery Criminal attempts Non-substantive Law Law and Justice Consolidation of course so far Has links to: Overall theory of tort (Law Autumn), Justice in Frankenstein (English Year 11)
Year 13	Continuation of Criminal Law Substantive Law: Fatal Offences Against the Person Defences – insanity / automatism / intoxication / consent Self defence Duress Non-substantive Law: Revision of lay people Criminal and civil courts and funding Law and Society Has links to: Theory of Criminal Law (Yr 12 Autumn)	Contract Law Substantive Law Contract – offer, acceptance, consideration Contract – intention and privity Terms of contract – express and implied Exclusion clauses Misrepresentation Duress Performance and frustration Remedies for Breach Non-substantive Law: Revision of English Legal System Revision of law and society, justice and morality Has links to: Non-substantive Law (Year 12)

The structure of KS5 can change due to the needs of the cohort.