

June 2018

Dear Parent/Carer,

Your child has chosen to attend the Creative Writing Workshop at British Library, on Tuesday, 3 July, as part of the school's Experience Week. We believe this will be a valuable day that will not only inspire students' creativity, but will also expose them to culturally significant items that are on display at the British Library.

We will be meeting at 8:30 in D28. From school, we will walk to Southwick Station, where we will take the train to London Euston. From there, we will walk the short distance to the British Library. The workshop itself ends at 2:30, so we will arrive back at school around 5pm.

Entrance to the British Library, as well as the workshop, are free, so the only cost will be transport to London and lunch. This will be £10, which is payable on ParentPay. Your child may bring a packed lunch or buy food from the British Library cafeteria, so if they do not bring a lunch, they will need to have money for it.

If you have any questions, please contact me via e-mail, at tyson.stevens@shoreham-academy.org.

Many thanks,
Tyson Stevens
